Polo Club Saint-Tropez wins the 2023 POLO RIDER CUP, beating Amadeus Polo Club 13 ½ - 9 goals in the final at the Polo Club Saint-Tropez, Haras de Gassin.

Amadeus Polo Club got off to a solid start, winning the first chukker 3-1 ½ goals, but from then, Saint-Tropez Polo Club inched up to close the gap, and from the second chukker, the host team started to run away with the game.

In the middle of the fourth chukker, the Italian team tried to get closer, but as soon as Polo Club Saint-Tropez went on the offensive, they ran away with a five-goal lead.

The final score was 13 ½ - 9 goals for the French team, handing it the 2023 POLO RIDER CUP.

Lorenzo Chavanne was named MVP for the tournament, and his pony 'Channel' was crowned Best Playing Pony of the match.

Martin Aguerre H and Salvador Jaureche were the Best Scorers, and Pedro Chavanne was the Rookie of the tournament.

Earlier, Aquedotto Romano Polo Club and Evviva Polo Saint-Moritz battled it out in the third-place playoff.

Last year's runner-up, Evviva Polo Saint-Moritz, won 9 - 7 ½ goals.

Evviva Polo Saint-Moritz came out strong, dominating the game from the outset and making it hard for Aquedotto Romano Polo Club to keep up with the core.

At the end of the fourth chukker, the Swiss team was leading 8-5 ½ goals, but then the Italian team staged a comeback, and towards the end of the fifth chukker, they were just ½ goal down.

And that's when Evviva Polo Saint-Moritz once again pulled out the extra stops to stay in the lead, with Martin Aguerre H scoring the victorious goal for his team.

The finals for the CHALLENGE CUP were held in the morning.

The match between Araucaria Polo Club and Golden Greens Polo Club witnessed a thrilling victory by the Argentinian team, which won 6-5 goals to lift the CHALLENGE CUP trophy.

Golden Greens Polo Club got off to a fairly strong start in the first chukker, but when Araucaria found their rhythm, they took the lead in all the chukkers. The match was hotly disputed until the end when, with a lot of hard work and concentration, Luca Maier scored the golden goal for the Argentinian victory. During the podium ceremony, Matías Nigoul Jr.'s pony 'La Roja' was crowned Best Playing Pony of the match.

Earlier before, the first game of the day between Coronel Suárez Polo Club and Polo Club Schockemöhle ended with Coronel Suárez Polo Club taking the third place with a final score of 11-8 goals.

It started off as an equal match, with the first chukker seeing the two teams tied 2-2 goals, but Coronel Suárez took the lead right from the start of the second chukker and the Argentinian team ended up with a six-goal lead after the fourth chukker, 11-5 goals.

In the last chukker, Polo Club Schockemöhle came back stronger, scoring three goals in a row, but they ran out of time and the final score was 11-8 goals.
